

UPCOMING EVENTS 2023

AiMH UK

28
SEPT

9.30AM - 12.00PM

NATIONAL NETWORKING EVENT FOR BEST PRACTICE

"Setting Up Start for Life in Challenging Times"

This event offers a unique opportunity to share experiences and gain ideas by hearing what is happening in terms of Start for Life throughout the UK.

10
OCT

1.00PM - 2.00 PM

LUNCHTIME SKILLS BOX SESSION

The Alarm Distress Baby Scale (ADBB) presented by Alexandre Deprez.

The ADBB is an observation aid for all professionals working with infants and is used to screen for early emotional and relational withdrawal in infants.

13
OCT

1.00PM - 4.00 PM

AIMH UK NORTHWEST HUB EVENT (IN-PERSON EVENT)

"Thinking about perinatal risk in a multi-agency context. What type of risks attracts attention from which services? How do different professionals understand what babies are saying and how they try to help?" with Rebecca Carr-Hopkins

16
OCT

1.00PM - 2.00 PM

AIMH UK BRISTOL, SOMERSET & GLOUCESTERSHIRE NETWORKING ONLINE EVENT

'Regional catch up and networking event looking at innovation, local planning and professional practice in infant mental health'

16
NOV

1:00 PM - 3:30 PM

AIMH UK NATIONAL CONFERENCE

'Moments That Matter: Nurturing Parent Baby Relationships'

We will hear from experts across the range of professions in early relational health, who are using relationship-based and evidence-based practice to make a positive difference to the future of babies.

BOOK YOUR TICKETS ON EVENTBRITE

please contact info@aimh.uk for more information or if you wish a team / members of an organisation to attend any of these events